

Wild Fun!

Black Bear Coloring Sheet

The black bear will eat just about anything, from berries and roots to fish and other animals. But it primarily eats plant material. Despite their name, black bears can be blonde, cinnamon, brown or black in color. Bear cubs stay with their mothers for about 16 months. The map shows the approximate range of the black bear in Arizona.

